

Whereas Ronald Reagan served for 2 terms as the 40th President of the United States;

Whereas Ronald Reagan was elected to his second term by almost three-fifths of the electorate, a percentage surpassed only by the election of President Lyndon Baines Johnson in 1964, and was victorious in 49 of the 50 States in the general election, an electoral college record unsurpassed in the history of Presidential elections in the United States; and

Whereas February 6, 2007, will be the 96th anniversary of Ronald Reagan's birth, and June 5, 2007, will be the third anniversary of his passing: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Senate—

(1) designates February 6, 2007, as "Ronald Reagan Day"; and

(2) encourages the people of the United States to observe the day with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

ORDER OF PROCEDURE

Mr. REID. Mr. President, very quickly—I know the hour is late—I spoke to Speaker PELOSI a couple of hours ago. Next week, the House is going to take up the Iraq situation. The legislation they will deal with, I have been told by the Speaker, is whether the House of Representatives will support the surge, the escalation in Iraq. They will finish that next week, and we will get it then, and it will be very direct and to the point.

ORDERS FOR WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 2007

Mr. REID. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it stand adjourned until 10 a.m., Wednesday, February 7; that on Wednesday, following the prayer and the pledge, the Journal of proceedings be approved to date, the morning hour be deemed to have expired, the time for the two leaders be reserved for their use later in the day; that there then be a period of morning business, with Senators permitted to speak therein, with the time until 2 p.m. equally divided and controlled between the two leaders or their designees, alternating sides when appropriate, with the first 30 minutes of debate under the control of the Republicans and the next 30 minutes under the control of the majority; that during the majority time, Senators SCHUMER and KENNEDY be recognized for 15 minutes each. If at all possible, I ask that Senator SCHUMER be recognized as close to 10:30 as possible.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. REID. For the information of the Senate, I anticipate that at 2 p.m. tomorrow, the Senate will debate several nominations on the Executive Calendar, General Casey and Admiral Fallon. I will meet with the Republican leader and find out how much time will be required on that side by 2 p.m. tomorrow afternoon.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 10 A.M. TOMORROW

Mr. REID. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand adjourned under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 7:31 p.m., adjourned until Wednesday, February 7, at 10 a.m.
